SONG: How Great Is Our God

CHILDREN'S TALK

CONFESSION

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
We have sinned against you
And against our fellow men,
In thought and word and deed,
In the evil we have done
And in the good we have not done,
Through ignorance, through weakness,
Through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
Who died for us,
Forgive us all that is past;
And grant that we may serve you
In newness of life
To the glory of your name. Amen.

THIS WEEK - Grace Groups continue

We'd encourage everyone to be part of a midweek group, meeting at 7:45pm – 9:15pm in the King William Building, Greenwich (Tuesday or Wednesday) or the Chantry, Mottingham (Wednesday). If you'd like to join, please speak to Fiona after the service or just come along.

This week we'll be looking at Mark 2:1-3:6

Road Closures Next Week

Due to the London Marathon taking place next Sunday, 2nd October, there will be parking restrictions and road closures in Greenwich from 6am-3pm. Check the church website or weekly email for full details. Please plan your journey to church ahead of time.

Newcomers' Meals

If you would like to go to a member's house for a Sunday meal, or you'd like to host someone, contact naomi.pick@greenwich.church.

Giving

Grace Church is funded wholly by the donations of its members. To support our work and give tax efficiently please email treasurer@greenwich.church (40-52-40 / 00027789) or visit www.greenwich.church/give

Next Sunday, 2nd October: Luke 4:14-30

Welcome!

Sunday 25th September 2022

‘For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin.

Luke 4:1-14 (ESV)

¹ And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness ² for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And he ate nothing during those days. And when they were over, he was hungry.

³ The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.” ⁴ And Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone.’”

⁵ And the devil took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time, ⁶ and said to him, “To you I will give all this authority and their glory, for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whom I will. ⁷ If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” ⁸ And Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘“You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve.”’”

⁹ And he took him to Jerusalem and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, ¹⁰ for it is written, ‘“He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you’, ¹¹ and ‘“On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.”’” ¹² And Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’” ¹³ And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him until an opportune time.

¹⁴ And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and a report about him went out through all the surrounding country.

Two reasons to watch the England game

- To learn football skills (the “Hebrews 2:18/4:15” reason)

- To cheer on your team and share in their victory?? (the “Romans 5:18-19” reason)

- Jesus faced a truly human struggle with temptation
 - o like Adam and like Israel

- Jesus trusted God’s word instead of Satan’s lies
 - o unlike Adam and unlike Israel

- Jesus was faithful to death – and so “we won”

APPLICATION: worshipful, outspoken certainty

COFFEE QUESTIONS:

How are you feeling “after the game”?

What do you have to say in praise of the striker who scored the winning goal?
